One of Our Newest Arrivals

Cezanne's was a much anticipated birth. Hailing from a Color Reserve Champion dam, Azaria of PVA, and the 17-time Champion MacGyver's Balboa, we expected great things of Cezanne...and she has not disappointed. Her dark brown fleece is locked to the skin, where her fleece becomes much darker and has an almost smoky look to it. Her head and ears have that same smoky appearance, while her fleece has that greasy feel we like to see in Suris. This girl has some serious genetics in her family tree: on her dam's side, she boasts Keanu of PVA, Mahogany Prince, Supreme Champion Kobe of PVA, and Grand Champion Montoya of PVA while on her sire's side, she can boast of not only her Champion true black sire, but none other than Peruvian MacGyver. Those are some impressive genes! Cezanne has a gentle nature, and can be a bit shy. She loves to run with the other crias, kicking up her heels with sheer pleasure. She was named for the artist, Paul Cezanne, who often had thick, black outlines in his still-life paintings.
